

THE JOURNAL OF GENERAL MICROBIOLOGY AND THE JOURNAL OF GENERAL VIROLOGY

ARE CONDUCTED BY THE SOCIETY FOR GENERAL MICROBIOLOGY

The Society for General Microbiology was founded to promote the advancement of microbiology, providing a common meeting ground for those working in various specialized fields including medical, veterinary, agricultural and economic microbiology. The Society is concerned with the more fundamental aspects of the study of bacteria, viruses, micro-fungi, protozoa and microscopic algae and in their various biological activities, its members being united by the common aim of developing scientific knowledge concerning micro-organisms.

The annual subscription, which entitles Ordinary Members to receive either The Journal of General Microbiology or The Journal of General Virology, is £7 (US $16.00) payable to the Society for General Microbiology, Harvest House, 62 London Road, Reading RG1 5AS, Berkshire, England. Members may receive both Journals on payment of an additional subscription of £3 (US $6.00). Subscriptions are payable on 26 March each year. The annual subscription for Associate Members who do not receive either Journal is £4 (US $10.00), and for Student and Retired Members £2 (US $5.00), also payable on 26 March each year.

All correspondence concerning applications for membership, changes of name and address, or payment of subscriptions should be sent to the Society for General Microbiology, Harvest House, 62 London Road, Reading RG1 5AS, Berkshire, England.

All communications concerning the purchase of the Journals, including the purchase of back numbers, should be addressed to the Cambridge University Press.

All general correspondence concerning the Society should be sent to the appropriate officer, Society for General Microbiology, Harvest House, 62 London Road, Reading RG1 5AS, Berkshire, England.
